
Request for Proposal (RFP) For Audit and Tax Services

March 21, 2025

The Early Childhood Partnership of Adams County (ECPAC) wishes to obtain proposals from a select number of Public Accounting Firms for professional audit and tax services and your firm has been selected.

About ECPAC

The Early Childhood Partnership of Adams County (ECPAC) is cultivating an effective early childhood ecosystem for children from birth through age five and their families in Adams County. We define an effective early childhood ecosystem as one where every child and family in Adams County has equitable access to the high-quality and affordable services and supports they need to thrive. The Early Childhood Partnership of Adams County is one of 35 organizations tasked by state legislation to help local communities do this important work. Through evidence-based programs, we improve outcomes for children, their parents, and their community. Our mission is “Building a community where all young children, their families, and early childhood professionals can reach their full potential.”

ECPAC is a not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization that began operations in 2008 through the fiscal agent the Adams County Foundation. In 2012, ECPAC moved to the fiscal agent, Mapleton Public Schools. In 2017, ECPAC received its’ IRS Determination confirming our not-for-profit status and classifying us as a Public Charity. ECPAC operates on a fiscal year (July 1 – June 30). Its annual budget for this year represents revenues and expenses of approximately $2,889,656.00 and $3,078,072.19 respectively with prior year carryforward funds of $201,321.00. As of June 30, 2024 total assets were $905,607.78. ECPAC currently holds no long-term debt. Sixty eight percent (68%) of total revenue is government grant/contract related.
